INSURGENTS ROUTED.

Another Engagement in the Province of Santa Clara.

AN INSURGENT LEADER KILLED.

Several Others Meet a Like Fate in the Engagement and the Flight — A Cuban Patriot in New York After High Explosives to Destroy the Spanish Forts. Mrs. Marti Arrives.

HAVANA, June 25.—An important engagement has taken place on the plantation of San Jose, near Placentas, province of Santa Clara. The insurgent leader, Casalas, has been killed, and his body has been identified. The insurgents lost two more killed, had four wounded, and the troops captured 10 saddle horses. The insurgents were compelled to retire, and in their retreat lost many dead and wounded. The band is now in flight. The troops lost 2 killed and had 11 wounded during the engagement.

At Quivicán, near Havana, the insurgents have raised a small band of men.

It is reported from Remedios, province of Santa Clara, that the insurgent leader, Zayas, has been killed.

Seven insurgents have surrendered to the authorities at Placentas. The insurgent General Borrera has been killed during an engagement with the Spanish troops.

The report that Major Calanjo was wounded during the engagement recently fought at Altamira, near Puerto Príncipe, is confirmed.

La Discussion and La Lucha (newspapers) are to be prosecuted by the government.

AFTER HIGH EXPLOSIVES.

Rifles and Gunpowder Too Tame for the Cuban War.

NEW YORK, June 25.—The World says Lieutenant Jose Rodriguez, a distinguished engineer and Cuban patriot, is now in New York making a scientific investigation of the latest discoveries in the use of high explosives. He said to a reporter: "I am an expert chemist and electrical engineer from Puerto Príncipe. The object of my mission to America is to learn all that is new in explosives."

"When I get perfected in every detail I shall return to Cuba and with a corps of competent engineers begin operations on the Spanish forts and cities. I need make no secret of this matter. The resources at our command are so terrible that we know pretty well what we can do."

"We will begin with Havana and give the Spanish a few lessons, a finishing touch, I may say, in the art of modern warfare that will not only surprise those who escape destruction but Europe will be surprised. We find that revolvers and ordinary gunpowder are too tame for our enemies."

MRS. MARTI ARRIVES.

The Widow of the Cuban Revolutionary Leader Reaches New York.

NEW YORK, June 25.—Carmel Layas Baza de Marti, the widow of Jose Marti, the Cuban revolutionary leader, arrived in New York yesterday on the steamer City of Washington. She was accompanied by her son, Jose, 16 years old. Only six or seven of her American friends knew of her arrival.

Mrs. Marti applied for a passport for herself and son to leave Cuba. This was granted and she quietly left the island.

As soon as she arrived here she went to the home of Enrique Trujillo, publisher of El Porvenir, where she will stay for some time. Mrs. Marti was too exhausted by her voyage to see any one, but she sent out word that her message to the Cubans in New York was one of good cheer.

Mrs. Marti has not made any plans for the future.

SHOT TWO SISTERS.

Horrible Crime in the Heart of the Raburn County Mountains in Georgia.

ATLANTA, June 25.—Lillie and Laura Moore, sisters, daughters of a farmer in the mountains of Raburn county, Ga., were killed Sunday by their cousin, Seymour Keener. Four years ago Keener fell in love with his cousin Lillie Moore. The girl rebuked Keener's advances. For two years he endeavored to pay her attentions, but finally she made him desist. Ever since he has been threatening her life.

Sunday afternoon the two sisters, now young ladies of 19 and 17 respectively, started from their home in the valley to visit a neighbor, who lives a few miles away. They drove past Keener's home going, and Keener saw them. Shortly after he loaded two pistols, took $200 which he had in the house, bade his sisters goodby and started off.

Half way between his home and that of the neighbor whom his cousins were visiting, Keener hid in some bushes by the mountain road. In the course of an hour the ladies approached, returning to their home. Keener rushed out on them with both revolvers drawn. Miss Laura, perceiving her sister's danger, rushed between her and Keener.

She pleaded for her sister's life, and throwing her arms about Lillie's body, declared that she would die before Lillie should be harmed. Keener tried to tear Laura away, but failing in this, placed the muzzle of pistol to the brave girl's head and shot her dead. Then he turned his weapon on the older sister, Lillie, and sent seven bullets into her body.

The firing attracted the attention of persons living near. They soon found the bodies and pursuit was quickly made. Keener was soon overtaken. His cartridges were exhausted, but he fought desperately with a knife, and cut James Dickerson seriously. Keener says that he shot Laura by accident. He is now in jail at Clayton, in the heart of the mountains of Raburn county.

SINKING OF THE COLIMA.

An Account of the Disaster by United States Consul Eugene Battle.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—An account of the wreck of the Colima has reached the state department from United States Consul Eugene Battle at Acapulco, Mex., dated June 8. He transmits the statement of Mr. Chilberg, corroborated by three other passengers and two seamen, saying the wind and heavy sea was the cause of the wreck, and probably a leak in the vessel. Twenty-one persons were picked up by the San Juan and 10 who went ashore on life rafts were taken care of by the governor of Colima. Two Mexican steamers rendered prompt service. One hundred and sixty-five persons were lost and 31 were saved, and the consul believes that but little more of the missing will ever be known.

Mr. Chilberg of Seattle says that the Colima putting out from Manzanillo at 5 o'clock on May 26 experienced heavy weather, making only about 8 knots all night and laboring heavily. About 40 miles from port and 10 to 15 miles from shore, there came a terrible wind; no one could stay on deck. He thinks the officers were trying to put the ship about to return to port when she was struck by a heavy swell at a critical time with such force that she capsized and sank in 10 minutes in 150 fathoms of water.

Chilberg was washed overboard, caught a lifeboat with four others, and got ashore after being in the water 33 hours. He thinks the steamer sprung a leak, as she listed more and more before the accident, and never seemed to recover herself in the least. One of the rafts had eight men on it, but the sea was so rough that the raft made three complete revolutions, losing a man every time, leaving five who made shore.

The people ashore received them with the greatest kindness, giving them food, water and the best accommodations their humble abodes could provide. At Colima the governor provided them with food and clothing and gave them transportation to Manzanillo.

Cousin Battle suggests that the state department recognize in some way the good offices tendered by Governor Santa Cruz in behalf of the distressed American citizens.

TINPLATE WORKERS.

A General Strike in Wales Will Be Declared in August.

PITTSBURG, June 25.—Officials of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers announced last night that conferences had been held with representatives of the Welsh tinplate union and had been positively assured that there would be a general strike in the tinplate factories in August.

The amalgamated officials are urging the Welsh workers to strike because if a lower rate of wages should prevail in Wales it would necessitate reductions in the tinplate factories of this country in order to compete with the foreign tin. While the amalgamated officials did not state positively that the tinplate workers of America would contribute toward the strike, they indicated as much.

The Monongahela Tinplate company signed the scale yesterday.

FINANCIALLY EMBARRASSED.

CINCINNATI, June 25.—The expected crash of John B. Specker, doing business as Specker Brothers & Company, wholesale dry goods, 162 to 166 Elm street, came Monday at 1 p.m. The assignee is Adam A. Kramer. The assets are placed at $850,000 and the liabilities at a lower figure. The firm is declared to be solvent, and only temporarily embarrassed. The cause is, as is well known, Mr. Specker's connection with the Commercial bank and its failure. His credit has, it is said, been so impaired because of that failure that he has not been able to get the extension of notes or further credit he desired from eastern houses.

ENTIRE CROWD IN JAIL.

ANDERSON, Ind., June 25.—Lawson Burger and Daniel Duffy, two glassblowers, called at the home of the Misses Nicum, in this city, yesterday morning. The two men entered the yard and began to make themselves obnoxious by teasing the girls. The father of the Nicum girls heard the racket, and raised a window and emptied both barrels of a shotgun into the bodies of Burger and Duffy. The men are seriously wounded. The gun exploded when it was fired, and Nicum was also seriously injured. The entire crowd is in jail.

FOR SIX MONTHS ALL WAS A BLANK.

CARTHAGE, Mo., June 25.—Ellis Jackson, the Carthage contractor who mysteriously disappeared in Kansas City during the priests of palliade parade in October last, has been heard from. He writes his family from Louisville that he came to his senses wandering along the banks of the Ohio river two months ago. How he came to be in the vicinity of Louisville or what had transpired in the more than six months of time he claims is all a blank. He is now working in Louisville and had sent his family money.

FIRST MAN TO CAN MEAT.

CHICAGO, June 25.—Charles Libby, the well-known packer, died yesterday after a lingering illness. He was the first man in Chicago to make the experiment of canning meats.

TOLD TO PARLIAMENT

Announcement Made of the Fall of the Ministry.

RESIGNATIONS ALL ACCEPTED.

The Old Ministers Will Continue to Hold Office Until Their Successors Are Appointed — Lord Salisbury Accepts the Task of Forming a New Cabinet—Gladstone Interested in the Crisis.

LONDON, June 25.—The house of commons was crowded with members and visitors at the opening of yesterday's sitting. Upon the appearance of Hon. H. Campbell-Bannerman, secretary of state for war, the Liberals gave him an ovation, rising to their feet and cheering, waving their hats, etc. The Irish members sat silent. The peers' gallery was filled with members of the upper house.

Sir William Harcourt made a brief statement, saying that as the adverse vote on Friday was in effect, a vote of want of confidence in the secretary of state for war with whom the government had associated themselves, they had therefore placed their resignations in the hands of the queen, who had accepted them.

Mr. Balfour expressed regret that the government had not dissolved parliament instead of resigning.

Sir William Harcourt said that the government would hold office only until their successors had been appointed, and he, therefore, would move that the house adjourn, but it was indispensable before this was done that the Bering sea bill be passed, in order that it might receive the royal assent.

At the conclusion of the remarks the Bering sea bill passed its third reading, Dr. Tanner, member for Middle Cork, alone objecting, on the ground that he would object to any bill by the house while the Irish land bill was dormant. The house then adjourned.

IN THE HOUSE OF LORDS.

Lord Rosebery Makes the Announcement to That Body.

LONDON, June 25.—There were few peers in the house of lords when the premier, Lord Rosebery, rose at 3:35 p.m. to announce the resignation of the cabinet.

The Prince of Wales, the Duke of York and the Duke of Cambridge sat on the cross benches. The Marquis of Salisbury was absent at Windsor, where he had gone in answer to the command of the queen. The galleries were crowded with peers and a number of the members of the house of commons were present in order to hear the statement of the retiring premier. Lord Rosebery, amid deep silence, said:

"I desire to make a very brief statement, which the house has undoubtedly anticipated. After the vote of the house of commons on Friday, which was practically a vote of censure to the secretary of war on a question of national defense immediately after there had been laid before the house a great scheme for military organization, the government felt it their duty to place their resignations in the hands of the queen; their resignations were accepted, and the government will only hold office until their successors are appointed."

THE GLADSTONES RETURN.

LONDON, June 25.—The steamship Tantallon Castle, upon which are the guests of Sir Donald Currie, Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone, have been witnessing the celebration of the opening of the Kaiser Wilhelm canal, arrived at Gravesend yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone came to London by special train.

Mr. Gladstone dined with Lord Rosebery, the retiring Liberal premier, yesterday evening. He remained discussing the situation with Lord Rosebery until nearly midnight. The party was joined by Mr. Asquith, the home secretary, and Lord Tweedmouth, the lord privy seal.

Salisbury Accepts the Task.

LONDON, June 25.—It is officially announced that the Marquis of Salisbury has accepted the task of forming a new cabinet.

Gold Reserve Back to What It Really Ought to Be.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Although the books of the treasury department do not show it the gold reserve is practically above the $100,000,000 mark for the first time since last December, when it was forced to that point as a result of an issue of gold bonds.

According to the treasurer's statement yesterday the gold balance is $99,813,395, but this statement does not include a consignment of $1,225,000 in gold brought to New York by the Campania on Saturday for August Belmont & Company, on account of the government bond syndicate. The gold was taken to the New York assay office for examination and in a day or two will be deposited in the United States treasury in payment of bonds. The treasury books will show this increase in a day or two and at least before the 1st of July.

A GUARD USES HIS GUN.

BUENA VISTA, Colo., June 25.—A convict named Watson jumped on a horse at the state reformatory yesterday and attempted to escape. A guard immediately shot him in the leg and hip. Other convicts began throwing stones at the guard when he fired among them, shooting George Way in the abdomen, inflicting fatal wounds. There is a possible chance of Watson's recovery, although the wounds are dangerous.

INSPECTING THE CANAL ROUTE.

The Nicaraguan Commission Heard from by the State Department.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—A mail report received at the state department directly from Colonel Ludlow, dated at Rivas, Nicaragua, June 2, shows that all is going well with the commission, that the health of the party has been excellent; that the climatic conditions have not interfered with the work, and the Nicaraguan government has extended every attention and courtesy, and has tried to make their stay agreeable and profitable.

The commission was not finding its task an easy one. It has just returned to Rivas from an inspection of the western division of the canal from Brito to Lake Nicaragua and was about to inspect the eastern division, leaving Rivas on a steamer on June 5, going into the woods at Oshor and then traversing the jungle on foot over the canal route to Greytown; no small undertaking in a tropical climate in the wet season. Colonel Ludlow expected to reach Greytown between June 25 and July 1.

While the board was at Grenada the party was invited to visit the Capitol, and were taken on a special train to Managua, where the president gave them a special reception, receiving them with great courtesy, and placing at their disposal the government steamer and the free use of the telegraphs.

LEAD FROM WIRE.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Lieutenant Colonel Ludlow, chairman of the Nicaragua canal board, has cabled the state department from Nicaragua stating that the board would reach Greytown on the 20th inst., and were ready to start for Colon on the 23rd inst. Secretary Herbert, being advised of this movement, has informed the state department that the Montgomery sailed from Colon, where she had been for coal, on the 21st inst.

The commission has now completed its examination of the line of the Nicaragua canal, but before returning to the United States it will proceed to Colon and make a similar examination of that canal with a view of comparing the rules and order of business so that nominations shall be made before the platform is adopted. As General Hardin claims enough votes to nominate him, the "honest money" delegates want the platform adopted first.

The contest between the administration and anti-administration delegates has been more bitter than ever. The fighting is for the temporary organization with a view to securing the chairman, two members at large of the committee on resolutions, and controlling the rules and order of business so that nominations shall be made before the platform is adopted. As General Hardin claims enough votes to nominate him, the "honest money" delegates want the platform adopted first.

There are some delegates instructed for Hardin who are opposed to free coinage. General Hardin is reported to have said he would insist on a free silver platform, and when seen he declined to do it. His friends claim that he could not run on a Carlisle or administration platform after the canvass he has made with Blackburn and others on the free coinage issue.

With Hardin were John Griffin, Ben Murphy, Mickey Dunn and Tom Donnelly, and back of Hennessey were Billy Smith, Dick O'Brien, Jimmy Kelly and Patsy Kerrigan.

In the second round Creedon had his opponent all but out, and apparently had mercy. Hennessey was game in the third round, and also in the fourth, and in the furious infighting gained several points, although weak.

Hennessey's fighting in the fifth was more of a beaten man, and he retired wounded, while Creedon sat down smiling and confident.

The finish of Hennessey in the next round was a surprise, however. Creedon shot out a few quick lefts, Hennessey fell, and on rising met the swinging right of Creedon. Hennessey lopped over upon his head, and it was thought he was severely hurt, but he was carried out of the ring 10 minutes later apparently unharmed. The spectators raised a cry of "foul," but the referee declared Creedon the winner.

HEAVY RAINS AND WIND.

MISSOURI, ILLINOIS AND KENTUCKY VISITED, AND CONSIDERABLE DAMAGE DONE.

ST. LOUIS, June 25.—Specials to The Republic from various points bring reports of heavy rains and atmospheric condition. At Platte, Mo., the heaviest rain, hail and wind storm deluged the place, the hailstones breaking through the roofs of houses. Macon, Mo., was visited by a storm, also.

Fairbury and Bloomington, Ills., received good washings.

Owensboro, Ky., was visited by a damaging cyclone. A mare and colt were beaten down and drowned or suffocated by the wind and rain. The cyclone ranged toward the southeast, destroying trees, crops, wires and many other things in its path, which was nearly a mile wide. One dozen telegraph poles were snapped off, and all communication east of here shut off.

In some instances trees two feet through were blown across the Louisville, Evansville and St. Louis track. The wheat is ruined.

DECREEES OF A COURT-MARTIAL.

LEMBURG, Austria, June 25.—A court-martial was held at Przemysl, Galicia, which tried 26 Hussars for the murder of a sergeant. Three noncommissioned officers and 10 privates, who were chosen by lot to do the deed, were sentenced to death and the remainder to imprisonment for life

Thunder showers, followed by fair, warmer weather; southerly winds.

During January of this year this country furnished Great Britain 47 per cent. of the wheat purchased by her. If the "oldest Britishers" didn't take most of our surplus products, we would have a hard time finding a market for it.

The Detroit Free Press reminds the over-sanguine Republicans of Kentucky of the moral of the old story of the man who was so glad that he laughed before he tried to throw the horned animal over the fence. He did not feel like laughing after he tried the job.

SENATOR STEWART, the great free silver advocate, is not such a lover of the white metal as he professes to be. When he takes a mortgage to secure a loan he most always requires the borrower to pay in gold. Stewart is one of the many mine owners who would be made rich by free silver.

DUN's weekly review says that reports from all parts of the country show a rising tide of trade and industry which threatens here and there to mount too fast. In some branches, the volume of trade is larger than last year or any other year on record. The Republican victory last fall brought this all about, of course!

FRED T. DENOIS, Republican Senator from Idaho, says that his party may as well surrender hope of success in 1896 if it nominates McKinley, Reed, Harrison or any other man "unfriendly to silver." Well, how's this? Colonel Bradley and other Kentucky Republicans talk as though the G. O. P. was made up of "gold bugs."

An exchange says that Pennsylvania Legislature, largely Republican in both branches, which adjourned on 8th inst., created new offices and enlarged the salaries of other officers, to such an extent as to make an increase of $800,000 in salaries. "It was a profligate and reckless Legislature," concludes this exchange. Well, we should smile! The Pittsburg Dispatch was moved to remark after the adjournment that "the Capitol remains, but the State Treasury wears a tired look." The same paper says that if any tablets are erected to the memory of the late Legislature, they may truthfully be inscribed "riotous and rotten."

Got What He Deserved

Jim Smith, the colored man who ran into and wrecked Mr. Robert Baldwin's barouche last Saturday evening, was tried yesterday before Squire Forman. He was fined $10 and costs for breach of the peace, $20 and costs for cruelty to his horse, and was held in the sum of $100 to answer the charge of wilful and malicious destruction of property.

Charles Grant, colored, who was with Smith, was discharged, the court deciding that he was simply Smith's guest and had nothing to do with the reckless driving.

Prevented Others From Escaping
Presley Roberts, who was in jail at Vanceburg under an indictment for burglary, escaped Friday by knocking the son of Jailer Dale down. A prisoner by the name of Crawford, in jail for petit larceny, and whose time had expired that day, prevented the escape of four other prisoners under indictment for murder.

THAT DECISION.

In the Fayette County Turnpike Case. What the Appellate Court Says on the Subject.

[Lexington Leader.]

FRANKFORT, June 22.—The Court of Appeals to-day reversed the decision of the Circuit Court of Fayette County in the turnpike test suit of R. J. O'Mahony vs. F. A. Bullock, County Judge, and the members of the Fiscal Court. The case is regarded as of enough importance to be officially reported in the usual way. Following is a syllabus of the decision, which was announced by Judge Hazzle-ridge:

1. Section 157 of the Constitution, in so far as it limits the indebtedness of counties and taxing districts, does not require legislation to give it effect. Therefore a county cannot incur indebtedness in excess of that limit without submitting the question to a vote of the people as provided in that section.

2. The local act passed May 30, 1890, authorizing the Fayette County Court to purchase turnpikes and issue bonds in payment therefor has not been repealed either by the Constitution or the various provisions on the subjects of turnpikes now found in the Kentucky statutes.

3. The principles determined in Broaddus vs. Broddus, 10 Bush 229, have no application here. The book entitled "The Kentucky Statutes" is not a revision of the laws of the Commonwealth, but merely a collection of them, and each act speaks for itself with respect to the effect on prior acts.

4. The provision of Section 171 of the Constitution that all taxes shall be levied and collected by general laws, does not render inoperative a local act providing for the levy and collection of taxes for a special purpose; for if that provision has any application to such a state of case, the General Assembly having, since the adoption of the Constitution, provided by general laws how all taxes may be levied and collected in behalf of the various counties, these general laws may be considered as amending or repealing the specific provision in the local act.

The Leader adds: "The full import of the decision cannot be ascertained until a copy of the decision comes to hand. At any rate Fayette County can have no free turnpikes until the question has been submitted to a vote of the people."

There is a difference, however, between the special act under which the Fayette Fiscal Court has been proceeding and the special turnpike act in this county. The Fayette County act required the matter to be submitted to a vote of the people.

LOUISVILLE TOBACCO MARKET.

Increased Activity and Strength. The Outlook For the New Crop.

Glover & Durrett of the Louisville Tobacco Warehouse, in their weekly report, say:

Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 3,841 hds., with receipts for the same period 2,702 hds. Sales on our market since January 1st, amount to 98,035 hds. Sales of the crop of 1894 on our market to this date amount to 99,202 hds.

The offerings this week have shown a rather larger percentage of good to fine burley leaf than usual and the market for such goods has developed increased activity and strength. Numerous sales were made at prices from $18 to $22 per hundred, with occasional sales from $22 to $25 and one hhd. was sold at $25 the "record breaking" notch of the season. The market closed somewhat irregular and slightly easier for the very common and low-medium grades.

We have made extensive investigation both by mail and telegrams regarding the extent of the recent rains. The rain extended over the greater part of the dark tobacco producing sections, furnishing a splendid tobacco planting season. The burley territory tributary to Louisville had fine rains and the transplanting in that section may be considered as having been practically completed. In the burley district north and east of Lexington, including the Mason County section and extreme Eastern Kentucky counties, the rain was not general or heavy, in many places not affording a good transplanting season and in these districts the planting, at this date, is far below the average crop and with a poor stand and in many neighborhoods a scarcity of plants.

The impression is becoming somewhat current that the 1894 crop was over-estimated as to the quantity and it is certain that the trade must depend largely upon medium grades for their wants. The holders of the unmarketed burley tobacco believe that the situation justifies higher values than are now current for the medium grades and are expecting to see an improvement in prices for such.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for burley tobacco, 1894 crop:

Common leaf, or damaged tobacco..... $1.50 @ 2.75
Common color, trash..... 1.00 @ 2.00
Common lugs, not color..... 2.50 @ 4.00
Common color lugs..... 4.00 @ 5.50
Medium to good color lugs..... 5.50 @ 8.00
Common to medium leaf..... 6.00 @ 10.00
Medium to good leaf..... 10.00 @ 15.00
Good to fine leaf..... 15.00 @ 18.00
Select wrapper leaf..... 18.00 @ 25.00

That Black Knot Commission.
Portsmouth Tribune: "Mason County, Kentucky's, Black Knot Commission has already cost the county $750. It was created to find fruit trees with black knots on them and whittle them off. Some of the knots were not high, but the bills for removing them appeared to be drawn from among the top limbs. The trees all died, but, thanks to the Commissioners' hatchet, death was not due to the black knot."

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

M. J. CHASE.

Sudden Death of a Former Public Spirited Citizen of Maysville. Burial at Ripley.

Mr. M. J. Chase, a former well known citizen of Maysville, died suddenly Sunday night or early Monday morning at Chicago.

His wife has been in Maysville several days visiting her sister, Mrs. H. H. Collins, and a telegram received Monday forenoon brought the sad news to her. She was not aware that her husband was ill, and was overwhelmed with grief at the unexpected news of his death.

The telegram gave no particulars. Mr. Chase had resided at Muskegon, Mich., for some time, where he was engaged in business as a manufacturer of pianos. He had a branch office in Chicago and was in that city looking after his business when he was stricken down.

His remains will be brought to Ripley on the 9 o'clock train to-morrow morning and will be interred in Maplewood cemetery at that place.

Deceased was sixty-four years of age. He was a native of Vermont, but came to Maysville in early manhood and was for years one of this city's most public spirited and enterprising citizens. It was while engaged in business here that he, in company with some other gentleman, purchased the land and laid off the original plat of Chester, now a portion of the Sixth ward. Chester was, in fact, named for him. He went from this city to Ripley, where he was engaged for some time in the piano manufacturing business, going from there to Michigan, where the rest of his days were spent.

Mr. Chase was married twice, his last wife, who was a Miss Stone, a sister of Mrs. H. H. Collins, surviving him. He leaves several children by his first marriage, but not by his last.

Deceased was a Knight Templar, and will probably be interred with the honors of the order.

THE HUNTINGTONS HERE.

Lively Games This Afternoon and To-morrow—The Cincinnati Reds Friday.

The Huntington ball team arrived this morning and will cross bats with the Maysvilles at the new park this afternoon and to-morrow afternoon.

The games at Huntington last week between these two teams were as close and exciting as any the Maysvilles have played this year, and the contests to-day and to-morrow will be lively, and will no doubt attract large crowds.

Maysville will try hard to win both games.

Bruner, who wore the Maysville colors last year, is with the Huntingtons now. Game called at 3 o'clock.

Don't forget the game Friday between the Reds, Cincinnati's League team, and the Maysvilles. It will undoubtedly be the greatest game of the season at this point. Big crowds will no doubt be here from all the surrounding country to see the Maysvilles down the Reds,—or get down themselves. Don't miss this game.

Fourth of July.

Don't miss the runners, five races. This is the first running meeting Maysville has ever had and it will be a bloomer!

A REFORM League has been organized at Lexington, and will cut some figure in the approaching municipal election. Mr. D. F. Frazee presided over the initial meeting.

ELECTRIC LOCOMOTIVES.

New York, New Haven and Hartford Officials Pleased With the Trials.

NANTASKET, MASS., June 21.—A new electric locomotive had a test over the Nantasket Beach branch of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad last night. There is great secrecy maintained as to the construction of the locomotive, which performed in a way which gratifies the officials of the company, the locomotive running from the power station to Pemberton and back without a single hitch. On spurs the engine made forty-five and fifty miles an hour with ease, and the possibilities of the electric current were shown to an extent never before known to railroad men.

The first locomotive which was used, and which weighed 16,000 pounds, was equipped with four motors, and the second with two motors, but both trials were equally satisfactory. The success of the experiment was more marked, in view of the fact that the average power used was only 500 volts, whereas in full working order it is intended to run under a pressure of 750 volts. Before the formal opening of the road, which will be within the next two weeks, it is asserted that one of the locomotives will show a speed of over sixty miles an hour on trial.

At the second trial the locomotive mentioned above made a run of eighty miles an hour.

Salt on the fingers when cleaning fowls, meat or fish, will prevent slipping.

THE NEW SCHOOL HOUSE.

Something About the Plans Prepared by the Hannafords, Cincinnati Architects.

When it was decided to erect a new school house in the Fifth ward some of Maysville's contractors and architects submitted plans for the proposed building.

The editor of the Public Ledger however, who is great on protecting home interests, didn't think any Maysville architect or contractor could get up suitable plans for such a structure. At least the Ledger came out in about half a column of advice to the School Board one day, to get some body to prepare the plans who made a business of such work.

Whether the School Board acted on the Ledger's advice or not is not known, but Hannaford & Sons of Cincinnati were engaged to prepare the plans and specifications, and these plans and specifications were received last Saturday.

Now, it turns out that Hannaford & Sons' plans are almost identically the same as the plans submitted by Dr. G. M. Williams, of this city. Dr. Williams submitted his plans before Hannaford & Sons were employed, and the two plans so closely correspond that parties who saw both at once concluded the Cincinnati firm had taken Dr. Williams' plans and adopted them as their own with slight but important changes.

Dr. Williams will present his bill to the Board at its next meeting for $25 for preparing the plans. Hannaford & Sons were shrewd enough to get a written contract before submitting their plans, and their charge is placed at about $250.

Just what the outcome will be remains to be seen.

WALTER Q. GRESHAM'S WILL Everything bequeathed to his wife, who is made sole executor.

CHICAGO, June 25.—The will of General Walter Q. Gresham, late secretary of state, was admitted to probate yesterday by Judge Kohlsaat. Mrs. Gresham appeared in court accompanied by her son, Otto Gresham, Judge Henry W. Blodgett and George W. Kemp of the United States circuit court, the witnesses to the will were also present. Mr. Gresham produced his father's will and formal proof of the witnessing of the will was then made.

The will is very simple. It is written in Judge Gresham's own handwriting upon one sheet of paper, and dated Dec. 18, 1888. It is as follows:

"I, Walter Q. Gresham, do hereby make this my last will and testament.

"I give, devise and bequeath to my wife, Matilda Gresham, all my estate, property and effects, real and personal, and of every kind and description, and wheresoever situated to have and hold absolutely. I appoint my said wife sole executor of this will.

"Witness my hand this 18th day of December, 1888."

The schedule of property owned by General Gresham shows that he was worth $51,000 at the time of his death. Of this $40,000 is in real property and the balance in personal effects. The other heirs are Otto Gresham, the son, and Kate Gresham Andrews, his daughter.

Have the Wrong Man.

CHILLICOTHE, O., June 25.—It has just been discovered here by Grant E. Monser, prosecuting attorney of Marion county, that William Knapper, who was arrested here about a month ago charged with the murder of Edward Uhl eight years ago, is being confined in the Marion county jail for a crime he did not commit. The jail register shows that Knapper was serving a two years' sentence in the penitentiary for horse stealing at the time the crime was committed.

Newspaper Change.

CHICAGO, June 25.—Yesterday afternoon the Chicago Evening Mail became by cash purchase the property of George G. Booth of Detroit. A new stock corporation will be formed to conduct the property. Mr. Booth is a son-in-law of Mr. James Scripps, and is general manager of both the Detroit News and the Detroit Tribune. He is also principal owner of the Grand Rapids Evening Press. Associated with Mr. Booth in his personal enterprises is Willis Hall Turner, manager of the Grand Rapids Press, who will also take charge of the Chicago Mail.

A Painter Murdered by His Son.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., June 25.—George L. Fell, a painter of Potsdam, was murdered yesterday by his son, Ernest. Young Fell returned home in a drunken condition and struck his father, who ran upstairs to escape. The son followed, and in a scuffle, seized a pair of shears and struck the fatal blow. Death was instantaneous.

Government Canteen Burned.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—Another mysterious fire on the Presidio reservation destroyed the post canteen and severely burned the barkeeper, Ernest Ralph, a discharged soldier. Ralph was asleep in his bunk, and was not missed until the flames had made much headway. His recovery is doubtful. The destruction of the building will entail a loss of $2,000. Colonel Graham ascribes the fire to an incendiary, probably the same man who burned the gashed last week, destroying property valued at $30,000.

Struck For an Advance.

SHARON, Pa., June 25.—The 900 employees of the Sharon iron works have struck for an advance of 10 cents a day. The men have demanded 20 cents a day extra, but offered to compromise for an advance of 10 cents. The owners of the works say the price paid for labor is more than is paid in similar plants.

Two Brick Stores Burned.

MACON, Miss., June 25.—Fire yesterday destroyed five brick stores and most of their contents, entailing a loss of $75,000, with $45,000 insurance. The heaviest losers are D. Owens, J. F. Jones, C. L. Heinrich, S. M. Irwin and J. B. Fort.

Placed a Bomb in His Ear.

PITTSBURG, June 25.—Anton Metzgar, a reputed anarchist of Allegheny, committed suicide yesterday by placing a bomb in his ear and touching it off. The whole side of his head was blown off. He was 81 years of age.

Food
—But No
Appetite

is a worse fix than "appetite but no food." Can you eat a meal with relish, or can't you? If you can't your stomach probably needs looking after, and this is the way to look after it: Take a tablespoonful of

Brown's Iron

in a little water, three times a day for a week and you'll be surprised how well you'll feel, and how hungry you'll be, and—but isn't this enough?

Brown's Iron Bitters is a medicine for all ages—children like it and old persons nearly always need it.

It is pleasant to take and will not stain the teeth nor cause constipation. See the crossed red lines on the wrapper.
